

A POEM CARD
Transsexualism: a change in life—Me

Poem cards convey love and a wish for understanding in troubled times, as well as hope for a happy future together. They are meant to provide understanding so you and your loved ones can move on to discovering further joy in life. With poem cards, you can express emotions when spoken words are not enough.

*This poem card is the first in a series of thirteen.
The poems herein have been extracted from the story "Behind Waves" written by Li Sam. On each card Li Sam has added her personal thoughts, telling you what's behind each poem.*
